

PREPARE FINAL HONOR TO WILSON BODY TO REST FOR WHILE IN MARBLE VAULT WILSON MEMORIAL LAW MAY K. O. DEMPSEY SIMPLE SERVICE AT MAIN STREET AT 3 O'CLOCK

Dead War Leader Will Sleep in Tomb Beneath Bethlehem Chapel, on Hill Overlooking Home, Until Final Resting Place Is Decided On.

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—A fringe of folks on the street before the Wilson home waiting to see the great ones who came and went, and that the guardian police directed the traffic from the steep, narrow street, alone marked out for the parade of sorrow was needed; no setting of lines that thousands might pass beside his bier, but he will go to his sleep tomorrow where death found him a plain American citizen with the days of his place and high dignities put aside for religious services to mark the entombment in the vault beneath Bethlehem chapel on the hills high above the stricken home. There were all the Washington could see it and showed their respect and admiration for Wilson. For the thirty day period of national mourning President Coolidge has thrown aside all social life and activities at the White House. The President and Mrs. Coolidge expressed their wish to come and pay their respects to the late President if there would be room for them at the private services to be held.

For them, as well as for himself, President Coolidge will go to the house with the casket to the place of entombment. In that public ceremony, however, he will be surrounded by his cabinet and the last honor the government can pay to a dead leader.

The family circle will be completed only a few hours before the casket is lowered into the marble vault deep beneath the cathedral. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. McAdoo will reach Washington some time Wednesday morning. The private service at the home will take place at 3 o'clock that afternoon, followed by the chapel service at 2:30 and the entombment in the Bethlehem chapel. Officials today sought to make the most of the little share that was left for them in honor.

TORNADO DOES MUCH DAMAGE

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
EVANSVILLE, Ind., Feb. 5.—Property damage which is estimated will reach several hundred thousand dollars was caused by a tornado which swept southern Indiana yesterday, according to reports received here. The tornado which was followed by rain and hail, swept a path of approximately a mile wide, creating destruction in the outskirts of this city as well as other surrounding towns.

Telephone and telegraph wires were partly dismantled and only meagre reports are available. Four homes, an amusement resort and a school house were destroyed on the outskirts of Evansville. Many cattle were killed and in one instance at Hubstadt, 17 miles north of here more than two dozen horses were smothered to death.

Rescue parties were formed and worked through the hail and rain that followed the severe windstorm, and also causing electric wires to be torn down over a large area.

Bill Would Bring State $10,000,000 In Overdue Poll Taxes

(By the Associated Press.)
RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 5.—A measure to bring the state treasury approximately $10,000,000 in overdue poll taxes was proposed for introduction in the Senate today by Senator Tarrant, Republican, Grayson county.

Under provisions of the bill, an official would be placed in each voting precinct to enforce payment of poll taxes and overdue poll taxes. The bill would provide a fee of 25 cents for each overdue poll tax. The bill would also provide for the collection of the total overdue poll taxes by each person apprehended.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Adams, have returned to the state after a week's stay in Washington and Baltimore. While away Mr. Adams attended the annual salesmen meeting of the Procter and Gamble company, with which he is connected.

POLICE CHIEF BELIEVES BOUT TO BE ILLEGAL

Bell and Mayor Refer Moody to Virginia Law—Chief Asks Carter for Written Opinion.

(Special to The Bee.)
RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 5.—John W. Carter, of Danville, here on business was asked this morning if he had complied with a request made him recently by Chief of Police Bell, of Danville, on the legality of proposed appearance of Jack Dempsey in Danville. Mr. Carter said that he had not prepared any opinion in the matter and that he did not intend to do so. He said that he knew of no law requiring him to define right or wrong in advance of the commission of an act. It was indicated by the state official that he would act in the premises as they developed and not before and that he would decline to be drawn into any back passing enterprise.

With the sale of tickets for the exhibition of Jack Dempsey in four or more rounds with sparring partners on February 18th, legal obstacles presented themselves this morning which possibly may be difficult to surmount. Within the realm of possibility is the arrest of the world's heavy weight champion together with the promoter, second and other officials connected with the promotion of the enterprise which is now definitely set for the 18th. The promoters, however, which also would be held to account under a possible construction of the Virginia law.

Promoter L. C. Moody told a reporter today that several days ago he was called over to police headquarters by Chief of Police Bell. Moody, who sought to confer with him about the bout and for the additional purpose of pointing out to him the danger he might run in staging an affair which might be stopped by the police and result in some humiliating circumstance, of a court trial and stoppage of the bout which is awaited eagerly, it is admitted, by

W. G. Covington Will Probated In Court

The will of W. G. Covington, who died here recently, was proved in the corporation court this morning by B. S. Graves and E. F. Upchurch, of Caswell. Benton R. Covington, one of his sons, was appointed executor in accordance with the request made in the will. The bond set by the court as is usual in such circumstances, was $10,000, this amount being given.

Mr. Covington, who lived many years in the state, was somewhat of a public figure. He was a successful farmer, bequeathed his estate in that county, consisting of 230 acres, to his wife, Mrs. Bettie Covington, and to his children, Mr. W. G. Covington, Jr., and Mr. W. G. Covington, III. The will further provided for his property to be divided among his children at his death. One of the final requests in the will was that his burial be simple, but in accordance with the wishes of his family. The value of the estate was not given or intimated in the will.

Recommend Bill To Tax Weapons

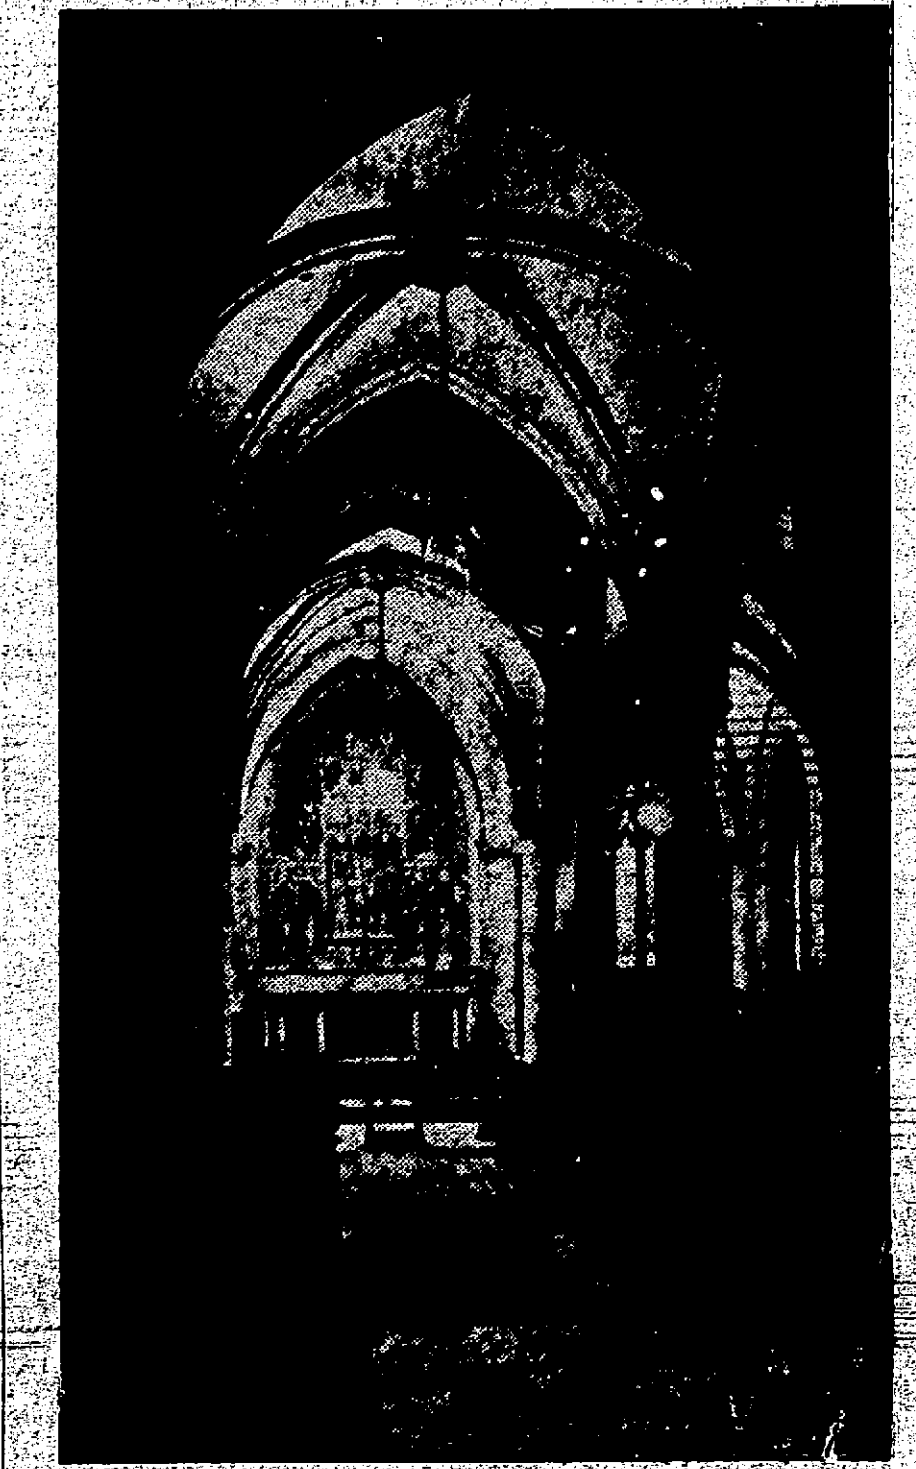

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 5.—Senator Woodson's measure levying a $1 license tax on every pistol or revolver today was recommended to the Virginia committee on finance. The same committee approved Senator Woodson's bill providing that no permit or license shall be issued any applicant unless the latter presents a certificate showing capitalization tax has been paid.

The committee amended the bill to change the date of eligibility of widows of Confederate Veterans for pensions from May, 1877 to May, 1885. Action on the bill will be taken later.

General and 20 Followers Given Death Sentence

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
MOSCOW, Feb. 5.—General Popel, former commander of the Siberian white army, and 20 of his followers, have been sentenced to death by the military tribunal at Chita for their counter-revolutionary activities in Siberia after Kolchak's defeat. Fifty-seven others were given previous terms. The sentences have not yet been carried out, as General Popel has asked for mercy, which it is thought will be granted.

WHERE SERVICES WILL BE HELD

View of the interior of Bethlehem Chapel of the National Cathedral, Washington, D. C., in which services for Woodrow Wilson, the nation's war president, will be held. In the center of the aisle is shown covering of the entrance to the Crypt (cross mark) where the body will be placed. In this crypt rests Bishop Alfred Harding, late bishop of Washington, Mr. Harding, his wife, Henry Vaughn, Architect of the Cathedral and Bishop Clegg, First Episcopal Bishop consecrated on American soil. In the rear of the altar (background) lies the body of Bishop Batterley.

College Avenue Matter Deferred Again at Chatham

(Special to The Bee.)
CHATHAM, Va., Feb. 5.—The board of supervisors held a long and interesting session here yesterday. The question of opening the extension of College Avenue from School field to South Main, extension near Danville, was again deferred. The board has virtually annulled all action taken previously on this matter by the old board and has started anew. Yesterday a new board of viewers was appointed and a report will be heard at the next meeting of the board.

J. W. Pugh was yesterday reappointed traffic officer for Pittsylvania. J. W. Rowles was named to take the place of E. T. Hulse who has become state license inspector. Mr. Fuller, of Callands, was appointed as a third traffic officer on the board serving the right to reduce the number of officers to two by next month if there is not enough work for all three.

Frank Bane, superintendent of public welfare in Virginia, appeared before the board yesterday and discussed the appointment of a probation officer for Pittsylvania. He pointed out what is required by law and asked that the board determine the salary for such officer. It was decided, however, that the county welfare board be organized first of all and this will be done, this organization to name the officer whom it will be to take charge of probation cases in Pittsylvania and to see that judicial settlements coming through the juvenile and domestic relations courts are complied with. One of his duties will be to see that alimony is properly paid.

The question of authorizing a road from Wilson's dairy farm, near the Bradley road to the main road, took up some time. Mr. Murrey and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson opposing it. The short stretch was authorized but viewers were appointed and there is still the possibility of appeal. A number of other road matters came up and several actions were allowed.

FUNERAL OF MR. SONNENBERG

Funeral services were conducted at half past two o'clock this afternoon in Aetz Chayim Synagogue on Wilson street for M. Sonnenberg who died at his home on Jefferson street at an early hour this morning after a long decline in health. Services were conducted by Rabbi Herman and Rabbi Lechinsky. Interment being made later in the Jewish cemetery on the river road. Mr. Sonnenberg who was 67 years of age was a native of Poland but came to this country forty years ago. He was married to Miss Louise Brown before he came to the United States. His residence in Danville dates back twelve years during which time he won many friends. For several years he has been owner of The Quality Shop.

Buchanan Bill Getting Support

(By the Associated Press.)
RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 5.—Members of the southwest delegation of the Virginia Assembly today were falling in line behind Senator Buchanan's bill to provide equalization of assessments through the creation of local boards.

Early in the sessions, leaders of the southwest delegation announced they would oppose any effort to effect equalization through a central board in Richmond, as proposed in a measure sponsored by the committee on simplification and economy.

The state tax board, however, would be given the privilege of objecting to any decision of the local committees and would be heard on its contentions.

REFERENDUM ON WARD MEASURE

(Special to The Bee.)
RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 4.—It was learned here today that a rider, affixing a referendum will be attached to the bill introduced in the General Assembly to establish wards in the city of Danville. The bill was introduced by Senators Garrett and Clement, and at the request of proponents of the measure, they will add the rider.

It was said here today by one in close touch with the Danville situation that the two bills, recently introduced affecting that city, the "change in the Charter with a referendum" and the "establishment of wards with a referendum" will pass, although there will be opposition to both measures. The two questions will be put up to the people of Danville for decision.

No Spoken Eulogy Planned but Resolution Will Be Passed—Ex-President's Favorite Hymns Chosen.

Arrangements have been completed by the committee of the Memorial Association for the Wilson Memorial service in which Danville people will join on Wednesday afternoon. The hour has been set for three o'clock as it will be at that hour that the obsequies for the former president will be in course in the Washington home of Mr. Wilson.

The service will be held at Main Street Methodist Church, the largest church in point of accommodation in Danville. The programme provides that William P. Boatwright shall preside at the service which will be marked by the singing of three hymns which were favorites of Mr. Wilson and the presentation of a resolution which will eulogize the statesman. Dr. Joseph Duglimson, of the First Presbyterian church will offer the invocation and Rev. Malcolm S. Taylor, who graduated from Princeton University when Mr. Wilson was president of that institution will read a selected scriptural passage. There will be no formal oration or eulogy of Wilson, this to be contained in the resolution which will be read to the congregation.

TOWN TOPICS

The Southside fire department were called at 2:10 o'clock yesterday afternoon to the home of J. F. Parker on West Main street. Gram in the yard caught fire, ignited a wooden fence and was threatening the garage when the firemen arrived and removed the danger.

The Community Welfare Association is interested in securing several pieces of furniture for a family which is being aided by the association and is seeking a place in which to store them. A small house has been secured for one of these families and the congregation is in a "fair way" to be relieved, but this family on the other hand, is unable to procure furniture. One of the attaches of the association this morning said that there was an imperative need for a cooking utensils, china, chairs and bed clothing.

Danville Rotarians today attended themselves to the spirit of a humorous and a second of a humorous programme which had been carefully prepared. Held a solemn memorial service for Woodrow Wilson. A series of skits had been prepared for the weekly luncheon held at the Rotarian Club. The skits were a critical juncture in the former president's illness. It was decided unanimously to supplant the merry making with the memorial service. In addition to special musical selections the Rotarians heard addresses and eulogies bearing on the life and works of the great Virginian. Dr. H. E. Fitzgerald and Eugene Withers who on several occasions during Woodrow Wilson's occupancy of the White House, paid him tribute here.

Private intelligence received here this afternoon from Richmond brought encouraging news of the condition of J. Mabrey Edmunds, widely known tobacco dealer of this city who recently underwent a serious operation in a hospital there. The message received this afternoon, said "doing well."

LANKFOED NOMINATED

(By the Associated Press.)
NORFOLK, Va., Feb. 5.—Merrill Lankford, a Norfolk attorney, yesterday was nominated for Congress by the third district Republican convention meeting at Portsmouth. He opposed and was defeated by Representative J. T. Deal, Democrat, four years ago.

JAPANESE EXPORTS GROW

(By the Associated Press.)
TOKIO, Feb. 5.—Official foreign trade returns for January just made public, show that Japan had an excess of imports of $100,000 yen.

T. H. Martin left this morning for Louisville, Ky. in the interest of the American Tobacco company, where he will look over the burley crop.

GERMAN EMBASSY REFRAINS FROM MOURNING OVER WILSON

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—By direction of the Berlin Government, the German Embassy here has refrained from making any display of mourning for Woodrow Wilson. No flag has been flown over the embassy at any time since Mr. Wilson's death, although the other embassies and legations have had their colors at half staff since the official notification reached there before noon Sunday.

Baron Leopold Frezza, third secretary at the embassy, made this explanation: "The German government considers the late Mr. Woodrow Wilson a private citizen and therefore has instructed the German embassy to refrain from any official display of mourning."

WORDS OF WILSON THAT WILL ECHO DOWN TIME'S CORRIDORS

There is no such thing as a man being too proud to fight.

The world must be made safe for democracy.

We must be impartial in thought as well as action.

A steadfast concert for peace can never be maintained except by a partnership of democratic nations.

There is no hate in our hearts for the German people.

We have always said that we were the servants and friends of mankind.

Peace must be planted on the trusted foundation of political liberty.

If you think too much about being re-elected, it is very difficult to be worth re-electing.

Property rights can be vindicated by claims for damages, but the fundamental rights of humanity can not be.

So long as the power of recognition rests with me, the government of the United States will extend the hand of welcome to any one who obtains power in a sister republic by treachery and violence. (Mexico.)

No permanency can be given the affairs of any republic by a title based upon intrigue and assassination.

It is not an army that we must shape and train for war; it is a nation.

America in this war seeks no material profit or aggrandizement of any kind. She is fighting for the liberation of peoples everywhere from the aggressions of autocratic force.

We shall not, I believe, be obliged to alter our policy of watchful waiting.

The Imperial German government will not expect the government of the United States to omit any word or any act necessary to the performance of its duty of maintaining the rights of the United States and its citizens. (First Lusitania note.)

The world must be made safe for democracy.

The right is more precious than peace.

The day has come to conquer or submit. For us there is but one choice. We have made it.

I believe in the ordinary man. If I did not believe in the ordinary man I would move out of a democracy and, if I found an endurable monarchy, I would live in it.

Truth recognizes no national boundaries.

HALIFAX MAYOR TELLS HOW RIGID LAW ENFORCEMENT POLICY PRODUCES RESULTS

Mayor J. B. Wilbourn, of South Boston, was in Danville yesterday evening. He came here to offer his personal thanks to Mayor Harry Wooding and to the Danville fire department for their expressed willingness to hasten to the aid of the Halifex fire on Sunday morning when a fire broke out in the Halifex fire station. The mayor found Captain Wooding out and did not see him and being unable to wait he told a reporter for The Bee to express to the mayor and the firemen the thanks of South Boston for their readiness to come to the aid of the Halifex fire.

Mayor Wooding this morning received the following letter from Mayor Wilbourn which was written by him on his return to South Boston last night.

South Boston, Va., Feb. 4, 1924.

Dear Sir:

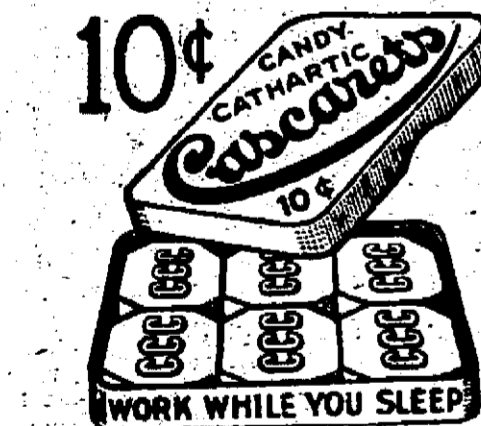

This is to thank you for the promptness with which you fire department responded to my call early Sunday morning, and I assure you that the town feels indebted to you and your fire company for the spirit manifested in answering this call. The entire town joins me in sending this message, and I want to offer our assistance in any way we can serve the town.

SAYS WILSON A GREAT MAN FOR FIVE REASONS

BY ROBERT T. SMITH. (Copyright, 1924, by The Bee.)

MIAMI, Feb. 5.—Five things Woodrow Wilson accomplished, any one of which would have entitled him to be ranked among the greatest men in world history.

That is the tribute paid to the dead war president by Hamilton Holt, former editor of the Independent, world jurist and intimate associate of Mr. Wilson in all his work for world peace. Mr. Holt enumerated the outstanding achievements of Mr. Wilson in connection with the world war as follows:

"First—It was Woodrow Wilson who focused the heterogeneous and often diverse aims of the war on pure democracy which is nothing but Americanism. With one accord, the peoples of the earth followed the banner which he unfurled. As a result a dozen or more republics were born at the peace conference, conceived in the likeness of the United States.

"Second—Woodrow Wilson was the constituted spokesman and decided position of the United States in the war. If he had appealed to our selfish nature we would have undoubtedly followed him, but he appealed to the best in us and informed the world that we would take nothing of territory indemnity at the peace conference. That elevated the United States to the highest moral position we or any other nation has ever attained.

"Third—Woodrow Wilson was the man who drove the wedge in between the Hohenzollerns and the German people. He was the first to demand Germany's becoming a republic. It caused every throne to totter, a mighty good thing for the world.

"Fourth—Woodrow Wilson enumerated the terms on which peace was negotiated. So far as the world is concerned, it was done. It did it. As a result peace negotiated at Versailles instead of being dictated at Berlin. Thus were saved the lives of three-quarters of a million soldiers and as many Germans.

"Fifth—Woodrow Wilson was the first man on earth able by his position and by his vision to translate the age-long dream of poets, prophets and philosophers into a practical statesmanship and to establish a league of nations to substitute co-operation for competition in international affairs and to hasten the establishment of peace and good will on earth.

"Some have pitied this great soldier of conscience who fell wounded in the course of his great fight. I do not pity him. I envy him. I pity the American who have not yet finished the work which he and those boys who sleep in the fields of France began.

"It is for us to keep faith with the dead.

"News of the death of Mr. Wilson came with particular poignance to others in this most Southern city on the mainland of the United States. To men who were closely associated with Mr. Wilson in his war work and his work for peace. One of these was Edward T. Meredith, of Iowa, former secretary of agriculture under Mr. Wilson.

"Not only the United States but the world suffers an irreparable loss," said Mr. Meredith today. "All those who were privileged to work under Mr. Wilson and with him have heard him give expression to the sentiment that one can never do the wrong thing by doing the right thing. He made this a rule of action under any and all circumstances. Words fall me in phrasing anything like an adequate expression of appreciation of the man or the great service he rendered his country.

"To Edward N. Hurley, of Chicago, former chairman of the United States Shipping Board under President Wilson the news of the latter's death was particularly stunning. Hurley was always has spoken of Mr. Wilson as "the chief" and it was difficult for him to realize today that the "chief" was gone.

"In many ways," said Mr. Hurley, "President Wilson was almost a Christ. He wanted to do something all ways for the betterment of his fellow man, to save mankind. I have often heard him say he would gladly lay down his life if he felt he could further this cause. In the end he did sacrifice for that which was nearest and dearest to him. His faith never faltered."

Former Governor W. L. Douglas, of Massachusetts, said:

"Woodrow Wilson did not live to see it but I firmly believe the time will come when all nations, our own included, will agree to become united as one great family, to prevent, through a league of nations, all future wars."

Chiropractors Cry Persecution; Claim No Law Violation

F. L. Tewell, of Tewell and Oakes, chiropractors, this morning issued a statement relative to warrants brought several days ago by the State Medical Board, through Dr. J. C. Peterson, that he and Dr. T. J. Oakes did not have proper certificates from the board to practice here.

Dr. Tewell declared that he and his partner are not required to have a medical certificate inasmuch that they are not practicing medicine and need no certificates other than their diplomas and a city license which permits them to conduct a business in the city of Danville, both of which they have. Dr. Tewell stated that they expressed willingness to Dr. Peterson to take the medical examination which will be held in June but that they were denied the privilege. He declared that the state of Virginia has no chiropractic law and does not require them to undergo a medical or any other kind of examination after they have once received their diplomas from college. Dr. Tewell charged that it was simply charged that they were "run us out of town."

He said that he had secured a license to do business in Danville and also in the county, paying the fee of $25 in each case. The other necessary document is their diploma, he said, and nothing else is required.

Dr. Tewell cited the case of a chiropractor who was hauled into court several years ago on an identical charge and was acquitted.

The case against the two chiropractors with he heard in the Police court next Saturday before the mayor.

Roanoke Citizen Ends Own Life

(Associated Press Licensed Wire)

ROANOKE, Feb. 5.—S. Y. Sweeney, about 50 years of age and prominent in local business and civic affairs, committed suicide sometime this morning, according to the expressed belief of the police, who investigated the case.

Sweeney's body was found by the janitor in a closet in a city auditorium, of which he was secretary. He is said to have been found lying on his back with a bullet hole in his temple and a revolver in his hand.

The janitor notified the police, who made an investigation and left the body in the closet.

BLACK-DRAUGHT FOR 30 YEARS

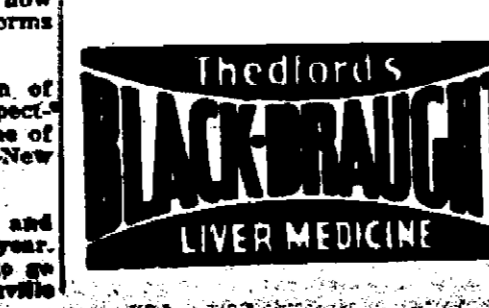

"It Did Me Good." Says Painter. Who Uses It For Headache, Indigestion and Liver Trouble.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky.—"I don't just remember many years I have used Black-Draught," says Mr. Frank Burnett, a painter and song writer, of 200 Park street, this city. "but I've used it longer than I've known my wife—that is over thirty years—and I found it a wonderful friend."

"When a young man," he says, "we kept Black-Draught in our home and I would take it for headache, indigestion and liver trouble. It did me good. I used it until we married and then my daughters grew up and they used it and we hardly know how to get along without it."

"I am a painter and the paint effects the stomach. When I need anything for stomach trouble, I take good dose or two of Theodor's Black-Draught and I am all right. It relieves indigestion and cleanses the liver best of anything I ever used."

Theodor's Black-Draught has been a well-known, successful liver medicine for over eighty years. Made from selected medicinal roots and herbs, and containing no dangerous mineral drugs, it is nature's own remedy for a tired, worn-out liver.

Aid to Cripples In State Assured; Society Is Formed

Dr. R. W. Garnett, city health officer, has returned from Charlottesville where yesterday at the University of Virginia the Virginia Society for Crippled Children was formed with temporary officers. The aim of this organization as outlined a few days ago is to care for helpless cripples in Virginia in an organized way, procuring for them first of all remedial surgery and then a proper education in order that they may be enabled to battle through life under their physical handicaps. Dr. Garnett said that about fifty people attended the meeting, Richmond, Norfolk, Lynchburg, Staunton and the officers represented the University and a prominent Kiwanian, presided at the meeting, both E. A. Alderman, president of the University, and Professor C. G. Memphis, being unable to attend. A temporary constitution was adopted, temporary officers elected and steps taken to secure a charter. A board of directors of ten members remains to be chosen but this step is expected to follow without delay and the officers probably will hold another meeting this month. One of the purposes of the organization is to foster sentiment throughout the state for the organization of orthopedic centers in Virginia. Help to the Helpless will be the motto of the new organization which will seek to secure the cooperation and assistance of civic clubs throughout the state. Dr. L. T. Roy, president of the University of Virginia, was elected honorary president. Mr. Roanoke, vice president, and Professor Memphis, secretary and treasurer. Discussion centering on the cripple problem in Virginia revealed that there are 7,500 in need of surgical attention today.

Poisoned Students Now Recovering

(By the Associated Press)

LYNCHBURG, Va., Feb. 5.—Upward of 150 students at Lynchburg college who were seized with ptomaine poisoning Saturday night are reported to be about fully recovered this morning. W. H. Rorer, a junior from Hagerstown, Md., whose case was the most acute, has recovered. The basketball squad, which was involved, will resume practice this afternoon. The college physician thinks the trouble was due to canned peas.

WOULD MAKE WILSON'S BIRTHDAY A HOLIDAY

(Associated Press Licensed Wire)

NORFOLK, Va., Feb. 5.—Resolutions were adopted last night by the common council of the city of South Norfolk asking Congress to make Woodrow Wilson's birthday on December 28, a national holiday. The resolutions were offered by mayor J. C. Holland and were approved unanimously. So far as is known, this is the first action of this kind to be taken by any organization since the death of the former president.

C. H. LEVERMORE WINNER OF THE BOK PEACE PRIZE

(Associated Press Licensed Wire)

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 5.—Charles Herbert Levermore, of New York, student of international affairs, writer and educator, is the author of plan 1468 and winner of the American peace award donated by Edward W. Bok of Philadelphia.

His identity was revealed last night at a meeting in the Academy of Music under the auspices of the Philadelphia forum and the policy come of the American peace award, and he was presented with half of the $100,000 prize. The plan was selected from 22,155 submitted to the committee of the best to preserve peace among the nations of the world. Details of the winning plan, which provides for American co-operation, under certain reservations, with a modified league of nations without the United States becoming a member; for adherence to the world court with the highest reservations, and for a commission of jurists to codify international law, were made public January 2, but its author was known only to one person, a member of the policy committee.

Mr. Levermore has published several studies on the general subject of world peace. He has been an instructor of various colleges and universities, including the University of California, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Adelphi College, Brooklyn, of which he was president for 18 years. He was born in Mansfield, Connecticut, in 1856, and was graduated from Yale in 1879. From 1913 to 1916 he was connected with the world peace foundation in Boston. Since 1917 he has been secretary of the New York Peace Society and in 1922 he acted as secretary of the newly-formed American Association for international co-operation and with other officers of that body helped form the league of nations non-partisan association last year.

John D. Davis, former ambassador to Great Britain and one of the principal speakers at the last night's meeting, disclosed the name of the winner of the award at the address and presented Levermore with a check for $50,000. He will receive the other half of his plan endorsed by the United States Senate or majority vote of the American people. This referendum will be conducted by Mr. Box. Mr. Levermore arose and thanked the awarding committee for the decision for a full minute.

Melville E. Stone, counselor of The Associated Press, presided over the meeting. Other speakers, including Miss Lape and Henry L. Stimson, former secretary of war, a telegram giving the name of the winner was sent to Mr. Bok, who is in Florida and the following reply was read by Mr. Stone:

"Will you please convey my sincere condolences to the author of the American peace award winning plan and tell him I meant well. But with the overwhelming publicity which will be his portion, to say nothing of the hundreds of accommodating persons who will tell him how to spend the money, I envy him. The only enlightening attitude I would suggest, ahead for him, is to labor under the delusion for he is a free-born American citizen, he may have his personal motives investigated by a Senate committee."

Girls To Take Part in Tourney

(By the Associated Press)

BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 5.—The basketball committee of the South Atlantic branch, A. A. U., at a meeting here last night, decided to hold a tourney for the first time to compete in its annual tourney, which will be staged in this city beginning Monday, March 24, continuing throughout the week, including Sunday, March 29.

Aster teams from Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia and North Carolina are eligible to participate. In the male events there will be five classes, composing the 55, 115, 130, 145 pound and unlimited weight.

Could Eat No Solid Food, Says Mrs. Dalton

"That I am now enjoying such splendid health now I can attribute to nothing but the help I have received from Tanlac," is the sincere statement of Mrs. C. J. Dalton, 1601 Campbell Ave., Lynchburg, Va.

"For three years I could eat no solid foods, not even drink, coffee, and for four months I had such bad spells of indigestion that I went into convulsions time and time again. I suffered terrible pains around my heart and got so dizzy at times I would fall to the floor."

"My nerves were all undone. I was never free of headache, could not sleep, and for months I had to stay propped up in bed. My friends, as well as myself, thought I was going to die, so I don't consider it any exaggeration to say Tanlac saved my life. Even before I had finished the second bottle of Tanlac I was able to eat anything, even onions, without it hurting me. In bringing me out of the depths of hopelessness and despair to health and happiness, Tanlac has won my life-long gratitude and praise. I have also gained fifteen pounds."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 10 million bottles sold.

Danville Merchants Make Generous Contributions To Lunch Room.

The lunch room which was opened last week in the new building, adjoining the Danville High School, is now open to the public.

W. C. Griggs, superintendent of schools, when interviewed, expressed gratification that this fundamental need had now been met in all the public schools. The equipment, which has been placed in the Hines building, is very complete and although the facilities for serving are not all that might be desired, or expected, in a more modern building, the best food will be provided.

Through the generosity of Danville merchants the Danville Association of Danville high school, have been able to provide equipment that would do credit to a more modern building.

The list of contributors are: Clements Chism & Son, gas stove; Blodgett Furniture Company, refrigerator; Benefield-Motley, kitchen cabinet. Others contributing liberally of kitchenware, china, towelings and other necessities.

Lea-Lewis Furniture Co., B. S. Motley, Fuller Bros., West-Watson, Inc.; Danville Hardware Company, Mobley-Graham-Jones, L. Herman, Virginia Hardware Company, Edith's Belk-Leggett, Gilmer, Inc.

Local Red Cross Chapter Makes Excellent Report.
January has been a busy month with the local Red Cross Chapter and a fine spirit of co-operation has been in evidence throughout the various groups of workers of which there are fourteen in as many of the Protestant churches of the city. Since January 1st, fifteen layettes including three hundred garments, have been sent to Hungary. These garments were cut, made, packed and shipped within one week after the request for them was received.

Two weeks ago, the local chapter took over the responsibility of furnishing clothing to those in need, as reported by Community Welfare Association, and to date, have furnished two layettes of twenty-five garments each, for children and women. Fifteen pairs of shoes have been given to school children who otherwise would have been kept from school. Ten days ago a call was sent out for second-hand clothing for women girls and boys, and the response was immediate and all present needs were filled except two. Coats for two girls, aged seven and five, are still needed and will be gratefully received. Those who wish to contribute please telephone Mrs. Herbert M. Martin.

Marriage Announced.
Friends of Miss Eva Galey and Alvin Tanner will read with interest the announcement of their marriage which took place Saturday, February 2, 7:30 p. m. at the parsonage of Calvary Methodist church. Rev. J. S. Gresham was celebrant. The bride wore an attractive blue travelling suit with accessories to match, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The groom is the son of Mr. Z. M. Tanner and is employed in the clerical department of Riverside and Dan River Mills. A few friends of the couple witnessed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Tanner left immediately after the ceremony for Richmond, where they will spend a few days, and after their return will make their home in this city.

Rotary Club Meeting Postponed.

An Intimate Story of Innermost Emotions Revealed in Private Letters

LETTER FROM JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT TO SYDNEY CARTON, CONTINUED

You will be surprised, old man, when I tell you who is going to be my new secretary. She has told me she knew you quite well—Sally Atherton. I never met her, you know, but she was an old friend of my wife's and has lately been connected with the publicity department of Leslie's father's steel plant.

She has been having some trouble with her husband who, as far as I can see, is an egotistical cad, and wanted to get away from him. He also is working for Leslie's dad. Mrs. Atherton went to Mr. Hamilton and made a clean breast of it. When Leslie heard about it she arranged for her to come to me.

Did you know the woman well? She seems rather mystifying. I wanted to take her out to our house to dine the day she came and she would not let me do it. She said she would see Leslie later and then Leslie showed me a letter in which she insisted now that she was to be my secretary she must know us only in a business way.

She is a crackjack at her work, old man, a nd has already written some smashing copy. There are going to be some changes all along the line in our office and I am going to put her just as far toward the top as I can, provided she keeps on the way she has started.

But to get back to the Ellington affair Leslie went to New York recently and I coming in rather early one evening in her absence, found Ruth Ellington meeting with Leslie's wall safe. Of course I was much surprised, as Leslie had never allowed me to know the combination and I knew she kept many little things as well as money and jewels in that place she wanted no one to see. It did not seem right to me that my wife should share her secrets with another woman while she kept them from me.

Rather peremptorily I asked Ruth what she was doing, and she informed me she had just put a large sum of money in the safe that she hadn't wanted to keep in her room until banking hours the next morning. This money, she explained, was the result of the day's sales in a new lingerie shop she had just opened.

I let her think she put that over me, but when Leslie came home I demanded an explanation, demanded that she open the safe, which at first she refused. Finally she opened it and I found the money Ruth had said she put in there.

I knew then that Ruth Ellington had given me some cock and bull story. I knew she could never have made six thousand dollars worth of sales during one day in that little shop of hers. Suddenly I thought I had hit upon the right solution. I told Leslie I thought this money must have been sent to Ruth by her absent husband, to be paid to me and others of his creditors. I promised her I would investigate the whole matter. In the meantime I persuaded my wife to speak to Ruth Ellington again until the whole thing was explained satisfactorily.

I might just as well have been talking to a side of the wall as far as my wishes were concerned because Leslie absolutely refused to give up her friend, and there the matter stands.

At present she has not given up her friend and I have not given up the money. We are in a deadlock over it. Leslie will make no explanation why she gave the combination of her safe to Ruth Ellington and refused it to me, and nothing I can say has any effect upon her.

If it were not that my business was running along very smoothly with Sally Atherton as my secretary, and that she seems to be most understanding, I would be pretty miserable. As it is the Acme Advertising Company is flourishing even if the home life of Jack Prescott is not Yours.

DEFERRED TO WISH.

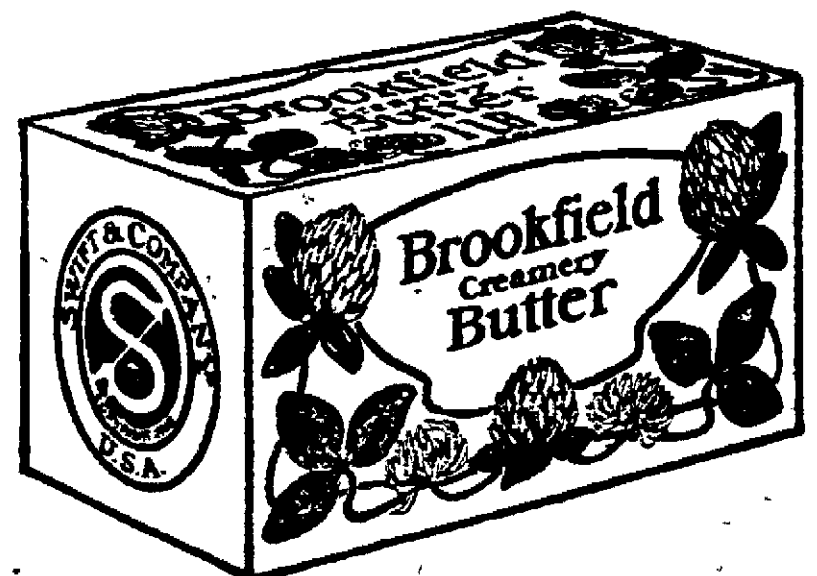

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Decision to hold a simple funeral service for former President Wilson, it was authoritatively learned tonight, was in deference to an expressed wish of Mr. Wilson that no public or official exercises be held in connection with his funeral or burial. It was in consequence of this circumstance that Mrs. Wilson has felt unable to yield to the expressed wishes of those who have urged public ceremonies.

THREE CONVICTS KILLED.
JEFFERSON CITY, MO., Feb. 4.—All three of the convicts who escaped from the Missouri penitentiary early today were shot and killed early tonight by prison guards, who chased them from a barn about two and one-half miles east of the city, according to reports received at the prison. The men fled from the barn and were riddled with bullets fired by the guards as they ran across an open field, the officials said.

RED PIMPLES ALL OVER FACE

Itched and Burned. Lost Sleep. Cuticura Heals.

"My trouble began with little red pimples breaking out all over my face. Later the pimples became larger and were so sore that I could hardly wash my face. They itched and burned so at night that I could not sleep. The trouble lasted about three months."

"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and purchased some. In less than a week I could see a difference in my face and in two months I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Donald Newman, Plano, Texas.

CURBS THIRTY DIPLOMATS
(By the Associated Press.)

RIGA, Feb. 4.—Latvia has had trouble with the excessive thirst of certain foreign legations in Riga. The government was unable to understand why carload lots of wines and other liquors should be imported by legations whose membership was so small that it was impossible to believe the members required so much wine for their own use. The matter was quickly disposed of by requiring the diplomats to pay duty on this wine, a measure that increases the cost about three-fold.

DRUMMOND HIGH IN HIS PRAISE OF MR. WILSON

(By the Associated Press)
GENEVA, Feb. 5.—Sire Eric Drummond, general secretary of the league of nations issued today on behalf of his colleagues of the Secretariat, the following statement on the death of Woodrow Wilson:

"Nowhere in the world will the death of Mr. Wilson awaken stronger emotions than amongst those at Geneva who, while he has lain stricken on his sick bed, have been privileged to take part directly in the high principles of international co-operation and conciliation for which he may truly be said to have given his life.

"Undoubtedly the greatest of our spiritual leaders has passed away, a man who had the opportunity granted to few indeed of standing at the crossroads in history and pointing out a new way for his fellow man.

"Mr. Wilson came to Europe at the end of the world's most desperate war and stood in the councils of the exhausted nations as the acknowledged champion of a new hope and a new vision. In the main Mr. Wilson triumphed, for his hope for an association of nations for an ordered method of arbitration for a permanent agency of peace were merited by the passing of the treaties, slowly at first, but with increasing faith, other nations turned toward this new ideal. Mr. Wilson himself was making his last fight at home.

"Go the work has gone on, ever increasing in scope and importance, and bringing always more nations and wider in the common council table. The passing of Mr. Wilson, while taking away the great advocate of international co-operation, will provide due and sober inspiration for those of us at Geneva who are most insufficiently, but to the best of our powers, attempting to carry out the ideals which he set.

"Mr. Wilson has gone, but the work to which he gave his life has only just begun."

Secretary Drummond telegraphed Mrs. Wilson a message of sympathy on behalf of himself and his colleagues.

NEW TREATMENT RIDES YOU OF RHEUMATIC PAINS QUICKLY

No Medicine To Take. Results Guaranteed by Local Druggists.

The well-known physician, Alessandro Volta for whom the electric volt was named, has made a scientific discovery that produces marvelous results with the most stubborn and agonizing cases of rheumatism, where the old-fashioned risky internal drug treatment has failed.

This famous discovery, which revolutionizes old ideas about the cause and proper treatment of rheumatism, is an external remedy, intended to be absorbed into the blood through the myriad pores of the skin.

The eminent Italian scientist has compounded a powerful called Volta, that is intended to be a powerful and active electric solvent. This marvelous powder, when shaken into the shoes or stockings is intended to be absorbed and immediately into the blood, thus acting upon certain poisons now definitely determined to be the cause of most rheumatic agony. So remarkable and so quick have been the results from the use of Volta powder, both in this country and in Italy, that the American distributors have authorized local druggists to dispense Volta with an unqualified guarantee of relief from the use of the first package or your money will be refunded.

If you suffer from rheumatic pains, Sciatica, Lumbago, Gout, or Neuralgia, you owe it to yourself to try this relieving scientific treatment. It is absolutely harmless and will not cost one cent if you do not receive wonderful relief.

You can get a box of Volta with an absolute guarantee of quick relief, from such good druggists as Paterson Drug Co., A. W. Jacob & Co., Booth's Drug Store, J. C. McFall's Drug Store, Frank McFall's Drug Store, etc.

Why Fear Child-birth

EXPECTANT mothers do not undergo useless suffering any longer, and baby's birth can be made gloriously easier.

Mrs. Wm. Flack, 115 N. 12th St., Leavenworth, Kansas, says: "Mother's Friend" is the best help in the world for an expectant mother. I am the mother of three children and have found "Mother's Friend" fine.

"Mother's Friend" is externally applied to the abdomen, back and hips. It penetrates wonderfully, and in this way relaxes the muscles and ligaments to relax easily and readjust themselves to the changes during expectancy and at child-birth.

Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., BA-73, Atlanta, Ga., for free booklet containing valuable information every expectant mother should have.

"Mother's Friend" contains no narcotics or harmful drugs. There is no substitution. Avoid useless suffering. Get plain old "Mother's Friend" now—the sooner the better. "Mother's Friend" is sold at all good drug stores—everywhere.

Body to Rest For While In Marble Vault

oring the commander-in-chief under who mthe war arm fought. Dist non-commissioned officers of the army, with eight sailors and eight marines of similar rank and record, will form the little guard of honor about the hearse on the bridge journey from the bridge house to the chapel. They alone will touch the casket of the man under whom all of them served gallantly in the war.

The navy squad will come from the Presidential Yacht Mayflower. Some at least among them will be of those who served on the ship when Woodrow Wilson used her in the dark hours of his heavy responsibilities in the war years. They will recall, perhaps, his look and manner in times when decisions that meant vital things to America, to the world, must be made by him alone. None could share with him the great responsibility he bore, for in his hands alone had his scoutmen placed the power to lead.

The marines will come from the ships and posts about Washington and among them will be veterans of the hardfought fight in the trenches in Europe. They will have received their recognition from the world. They will be picked men of the service to whom this honor falls.

In like manner the eight army sergeants will be selected. Records of personnel in all posts from which men could be drawn were examined to locate war heroes as far as possible to bear the war President to his long rest. At his word these men and military officers had leaped to offer themselves to fight the nation's battle with arms in their hands and loyalty to the flag in their hearts as he had fought with every weapon and every resource.

Still today there was discussion among many that a last moment change should be made and more elaborate ceremonies mark the funeral. There were many like Senator Swanson, of Virginia, who believed that this dead son of Virginia, mother of Presidents, should go back to his home in the Shenandoah valley. Some felt that the permanent resting place of Woodrow Wilson, war President and himself struck down by the war as surely as any of the glorious dead who sleep on hillsides beneath the unknown resting place, should be within that stately enclosure sacred to the memory of those who have died for the flag. The offer of stupor in this hallowed circle was promptly rejected.

Perhaps there is a legal barrier, since the law says no monument or vault shall be placed within the memorial structure unless him to whom honor is done shall have been a decade dead. Secretary Weeks made it plain that no narrow legal construction would stand in the way of opening the last haven of patriotic Americans to the war President, and the small doubt that Congress would approve in such a case, disregarding that restriction.

Mrs. Wilson had her way, however, and the marble vault under the great church that has been the home of the unknown soldier, where he died will hold her husband's honored casket until the form and manner of his final resting place can be determined.

Charles T. Swann, private stenographer to Mr. Wilson during his term as governor of New Jersey and later his eight years in the White House, will be among those at the private funeral services for the late President.

M. Swann, who has retired to private life, wired a request yesterday that he might attend. A message immediately went back to him from the Wilson home requesting that "by all means" he be present.

NO MOTIVE FOR THE MURDER OF PRIEST FOUND

(Associated Press Local Wire)
BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Feb. 5.—The police were puzzled today in tracing the murder of Rev. Herbert J. Dahme, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic church, and failed to find a motive for the crime. Father Dahme was shot through the head early last evening as he was walking along Main street. The slayer had been walking with the priest, according to meager evidence obtainable. Father Dahme was returning from a sick call, died in the hospital two hours later without recovering consciousness.

The shooting occurred within a stone's throw of Lyric theatre, in front of which a crowd was gathered, and about four blocks from the church and rectory. None of the theatre crowd or others on the street, with the exception of two boys, saw the shooting, so far as can be learned. From the boys the police obtained the only description they have obtained of the murderer or the shooting.

Pupil of Wilson Pays Him Tribute
BY GEORGE H. MANNING
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 4.—Congressman Elmer H. Geran of New Jersey, a pupil of Woodrow Wilson's at Princeton and later was closely associated with him as Democratic leader in the New Jersey House of Assembly when Mr. Wilson was governor of the State, today paid a very high tribute to his memory.

The former president was Mr. Geran's instructor at Princeton when Wilson was president of the American Constitutional law and British Commonwealth law. Mr. Geran was in the class of 1899.

When Woodrow Wilson was elected governor of New Jersey Mr. Geran was the Democratic leader in the House of Assembly and put through the numerous progressive and reform measures advocated by Mr. Wilson. Among these measures was the Workmen's Compensation act, the Corrupt Practices act, the Clean Election law, and the revision of the election laws of the state, the "Seven Sisters" bills aimed to check the corporations, and numerous other very important bills.

When Woodrow Wilson became president of the United States he appointed Elmer H. Geran as United States District Attorney for New Jersey, a position he held until the Republican administration came in in 1921.

Speaking of the former president's career, Mr. Geran said:

"A great man has died. He was a distinguished citizen of the State of New Jersey and brought great credit to the state as well as to the nation. He was a man of great simplicity, in his learning, in his courage and in his purpose to be of service to the common man. He was the spokesman of no class, class or interest. He believed that the government was of the people, for the people and by the people."

"The American people and was always interested in bettering their conditions. He had the interest of the man who was struggling—as he expressed it 'of the man who was bucking the tide rather than the one who was floating down the stream with the tide.'"

"Woodrow Wilson was an original thinker. He was never afraid of a proposition, a project, because it was new. In a matter of fact, the pleasure and zest of life to him was in fighting for something which he believed in and which was not generally accepted by the public at large. In his career as president of Princeton he urged the university to disregard its old customs and traditions and establishment of Democratic conditions among the students. And the fact that some of his life-long friends did not agree with him in no wise lessened his ardor in the advocacy of the adoption of his policy."

"As governor of New Jersey he advocated measures and even though opposed by powerful interests in political party, he did not waver in his fight for the enactment of those laws which he believed to be for the best interests of the average citizen."

"As president of the United States he continued to advocate and urge new laws in the interest of and for the general welfare of the people. The greatest of the opposition, the greater was his courage—the greater the opposition the more determined was his will."

"While only a portion of his life was given to public affairs, he was all his life a student of the United States government, of Constitutional Government and the history and development of all governments. His manner, his culture and poise. His great desire was to be a leader of the common man; to be an instrument for bringing about of better conditions for man everywhere. He loved liberty and justice and his every act was for the purpose of establishing quality."

"A champion of the people has gone. Such a one appears only occasionally in political life. He was not content to lead. He had the courage to act and the heart and sympathy to see and seek justice."

OPPOSITION TO CHANGES IN WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION ACT

(By the Associated Press)
RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 5.—Opposition to the extensive changes in the workmen's compensation act, proposed by the state was expressed today by John W. Chalkley, representing employers, in the courts of justice.

Mr. Chalkley denied that the compensation of labor had stated the act had resulted in the saving of money to manufacturers since the law went into effect. He stated that realized increase of this nature, compensation law, he said, was "nothing short of a tax on industries," and when passed was intended to better the economic condition of the state. The act was not meant to have the employer bear all the expense and probably be an injury to the employee in failure to carry out proportionate share of the burden.

Mr. Chalkley told the committee his employers had no objection to the federation to provide that firms or individuals employing as many as five persons or more should come under provisions of the compensation act. The present law provided that the maximum number of persons a concern or individual may now employ without coming under the act.

people who take an interest in sporting events. Mr. Moody said this morning that he had studied the law and was prepared for the consequences. He denied that the Dempsey affair was a "pugilistic encounter," but a theatrical show, also that he had in no way insurance that the affair could be staged without running foul of the law. Mr. Moody told the reporter that he had made a special request of the police not to arrest Jack Dempsey or to stop the exhibition but to arrest him (Moody) after it was over and that he was willing to stand a trial, believing that no jury would convict him of any wrongdoings.

Chief of Police Bell admitted that Moody had been invited over to the courthouse and that he had been warned. The police official made it plain, however, that in doing both he and the mayor were prompted by consideration for Moody. "I simply wished to show Mr. Moody well in advance of the affair the law and point out to him the possible results from the staging of the bout," Mr. Bell denied that he had any desire to spoil a legitimate evening's entertainment, but that the point with him was that he was not quite sure of the proper construction of the State law. Personally, Mr. Bell believes that a Dempsey bout in the theatre or in any other place is a violation of the law but in order not to assume authority in passing judgment on the statute he said that last Sunday he saw John W. Carter, commonwealth's attorney, and asked him for a written opinion which Mr. Bell said, Mr. Carter had promised to send him. The opinion had not been received by Mr. Bell at noon. The chief added that he had asked Jesse W. Benton, assistant commonwealth's attorney, for an opinion but that Mr. Benton had referred him to Mr. Carter.

The present status of the exhibition is deterring Moody from going forward with his plans and he is advertising the event and plans putting the tickets on sale tomorrow.

That section of the State law which bears upon prize-fighting in Virginia is set forth in the following unamended language:

Section 4426.—"Any person who shall voluntarily engage in a pugilistic encounter between man and man or fight between a man and bull or any other animal for money or other thing of value or for any championship or prize or for any voluntary fight or for anything of value is bet or wagered or to receive which any admission fee is charged either directly or indirectly shall be deemed guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be punished by confinement in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years. By the term 'pugilistic encounter' as used in this section is meant any fight or prize fight or personal encounter by blows or means of the fists or otherwise whether with or without gloves between two or more men for money or for prize or for anything of value or for any championship or upon the result of which any money or anything of value is bet or wagered."

State Convention Of Republicans Begins

(By the Associated Press)
ROANOKE, Va., Feb. 5.—Virginia Republicans to the number of about eight hundred assembled here this morning for the state Republican convention and the sixth district convention which preceded it. The state convention began about 11:30 a. m. and the district convention met shortly after 4 o'clock.

Fred McWane, of Lynchburg, who opposed Clifton A. Woodruff, during the congressional election, was nominated Republican candidate for Congress from the sixth district. He was also elected a delegate to the Republican national convention. Sixth district delegates also chose Jos. T. Engleby of this city, district attorney, Harry Lawson of Roanoke, district chairman and Mrs. Robert Reeves of Roanoke, district vice-chairman, and S. G. Profit of Floyd; A. L. Harless, Christiansburg; W. D. Gray, Bedford; Mrs. F. H. Reeves, Roanoke; M. A. Maybury, Campbell county, and W. A. Mosley, Lynchburg, to the state executive committee.

Leaders predicted that the state convention would not be marked by any contest. They say they expect the Coolidge policies to receive unqualified endorsement, and the fourteen Virginia votes in the national convention to be instructed for President Coolidge.

The morning session of the state convention was given over to the usual formalities of opening a convention, such as speech making and was appointment of committees to report at the afternoon sessions. Leaders predict that the convention will not only be harmonious but short as well.

C. Bascom Stemp, secretary in President Coolidge, is not in attendance.

Riddled Bodies Of Convicts Are Found in Haystack

(Associated Press Local Wire)
JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Feb. 5.—Riddled with buckshot, the bodies of the three convicts who escaped from the penitentiary yesterday, killing a sixty-year-old guard, were found today. They had taken refuge in a haystack on a farm just south of here. A dozen penitentiary guards found the fugitives huddled in the hay pile to protect themselves from a severe blizzard. The bodies of the convicts were located on a truck and returned to the penitentiary.

Considered in the prison as "bad men" were: Frank Delcore, serving 45 years for murder; Jack McFall, serving ten years for robbery; and Miles Thomas, eight years on a burglary charge. They were celled together and made their escape by filing and sawing the lower bars on their cell door.

OIL MUDDLE, NOW STILLED, TO BE STIRRED AGAIN TOMORROW

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Injunction proceedings to prevent further extraction of oil from the Teapot Dome and its vicinity will be instituted by the government's special counsel in the oil land lease cases as soon as President Coolidge signs the Walsh resolution recently adopted by Congress.

(Associated Press Local Wire)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Because of a misunderstanding as to the hour of meeting of the Senate Oil Committee, Samuel Ungerleider, head of a Cleveland, Ohio, stock brokerage firm, was not present today to respond to his name when it was called. No other witness had been summoned for today and further investigation of the naval oil leases was deferred until next Thursday.

Mr. Ungerleider, accompanied by the former manager of his Washington branch, James Sloane, Jr., a white house attaché during a part of Harding administration, appeared at the hearing room later and held a conference with Chairman Lenroot. They brought with them books of the Washington branch which the committee desires to have examined to determine whether they contain any record of transactions by Federal government officials in the stock of the Mammoth Oil Company. This company was organized by the Sinclair interests to take over the lease of the Teapot Dome reserve obtained by Harry F. Sinclair from Albert B. Fall, as secretary of the interior.

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The Senate oil investigating committee met only briefly today, having no plans to probe deeper into the leasing muddle until Thursday, while its accountants continued their study of the books of W. B. Hibbs and Company, a Washington banking and brokerage firm, to determine whether any government officials have dealt in the stock of the Mammoth Oil Company, which was organized by Harry F. Sinclair to take over the Teapot Dome lease.

The committee will ask the Senate for a new grant of authority when it re-assembles Thursday and has not notified former Secretary Fall, who signed the leases, that his re-appearance for questioning as to his relations with Harry Sinclair and E. L. Doherty, holder of California reserve lease, will be deferred until Friday. The prompt action by the Senate on the committee's request for re-authorization of the resolution authorizing the inquiry was expected in view of the statement by Fall last week.

Carl P. Bigerman, assistant cashier of the Chase National Bank of New York, also has been summoned by the committee to present records relating to any reserve leases that may have been made between September 1, 1921, and June 1, 1923 by that institution to any bank in Washington payable to the order of Sinclair or J. W. Zeviley, his personal attorney.

Broken Leg Saves General Hamlett From Jail Term

A broken leg yesterday saved General Hamlett, colored, from having to serve six months in the city for an offense not entirely new to him. General whose falling has made him something of a marked man appealed the penalty imposed on him by the mayor before Judge Withers. He was fined $200 and sentenced to serve six months but in view of his broken leg the court consented to suspend the term pending his good behavior for three years.

Charlie Gray had one of his Mapp Act cases scheduled for hearing yesterday but he secured a continuance until next April a bond of $250 being required of him. A. G. Willis who appealed a liquor law violation in the police court, drew $100 bonds and $100. Fred Goodwine was heard on two liquor law violation cases but was acquitted each time.

W. W. Davis was authorized yesterday to perform the marriage rite and gave bond of $500. R. L. Motley being security.

Norway Makes Runaway Race in Closing of Olympics

REGISTERED 114 POINTS OUT OF A TOTAL OF 391

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

CHAMONIX, France, Feb. 5.—Norway's athletes made 114 points out of a total of 391 in winning the Olympic winter sports, which closed here yesterday. Finland was second with 76½, the two nations making more than half of the points allotted.

Great Britain placed third with 30 points, just missing out the United States with 29. The other scoring nations on the order of their finish: Sweden, 26; Austria, 25; Switzerland, 24; France, 19½; Czechoslovakia, 11½; Belgium, 6; and Italy, 1.

The English came in ahead of Americans by virtue of their success at curling, in which kept only three nations were entered, the United States not being among them.

One cause of disappointment to the Americans was the ruling of the jury in the ski jumping contest, placing Aiders Haugen, of Minneapolis fourth, although his jump of 50 meters was the longest of any. The judges, however, said style and action were to be taken into consideration. In addition to the distance covered in the leaps, the time, Bonna and Haug, all of Norway, were placed ahead of Haugen, further swelling their nation's point total.

The receipts from the games amounted to 251,000 francs, the balance being Sunday when the crowd paid 31,000 francs to see that Hockey final between the Americans and Canadians. The receipt total was disappointing to the organizers, who expected it to reach 500,000 francs and one of the explanations was too many complimentary tickets were issued to relatives of the athletes, participating.

INTERMEDIATES AT "Y" IN GOOD GAME

The Aviators and Marines put up one of the fastest and hardest fought games yet played in the Intermediate League in the Y. M. C. A. gym. Both teams fought to the last for victory and either team had a chance until the final whistle. Hughes and H. Gwynn were the outstanding stars for the Aviators, while Dyer and Harris played great games for the losing team.

The line-up:
Aviators 21 Forward Marines 15
Hughes Forward Jordan
H. Gwynn Center Harris
Watson Guard Clark
J. D. Gwynn Guard Dyer
Thompson Guard Tucker
Summary: Field goals: Hughes 4, H. Gwynn 2, Watson 1, J. D. Gwynn 2, Thompson 1, Dyer 5, Harris 4. Foul goals, H. Gwynn 1.

The Navy defeated the Marines in a game that required an extra period of play to decide the winner, by the score of 22 to 18.

Capt. Giles had his full line-up of seven men out and they all worked to pull out on top. Harrison, especially, did some clever guarding while Giles led in scoring with 8 points. Day, Blair and Rucker were the leaders in the Navy's attack and kept the ball sailing through the basket. In the final extra period Day and Blair both came through with double deckers putting the game on ice for their team.

Navy Forward Marines
Blair Motley and Ferrell
Yeatts and Rodgers Barr and Ramsey
Day Guard Witcher
Jennings Guard Giles
Rucker Harrison
Summary: Field goals: Blair 2, Yeatts 1, Rodgers 1, Day 5, Rucker 1, Giles 3, Barr 1, Ferrell 2. Foul goals: Yeatts 1, Rucker 1, Giles 2, Barr 1, Witcher 1.

ST. LOUIS FANS FEEL SHOCKER WILL GO

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 4.—Despite the fact that Urban Shocker, star pitcher of the St. Louis Browns, has signed his contract, there is a feeling that he will not be with the local team this year.

Withdrawal of the suit on the part of Shocker was made possible by the intervention of Bobby Quinn, who formerly handled the affairs of the St. Louis club, but who is now president of the Boston Red Sox.

President Quinn of the Boston Red Sox came on to Chicago for a conference with Shocker and President Johnson. It took only a short time to settle the matter, Shocker withdrawing his petition to Landis and signing a St. Louis contract.

It is questionable, however, if the feeling between Shocker and the management of the Browns has been erased. If not, he wouldn't be a very valuable man for the club.

Local fans fear that Quinn, in signing Shocker, was feathering his own nest and that the sale of Shocker to Boston is a possibility of the immediate future.

ROLL OF DICE GAVE RUTH $10,000 MORE IN SALARY

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

After agreeing on $50,000 as his yearly salary, Ruth said, "Now, I ought to have $10,000 for signing." Colonel Hutson demurred at first but finally suggested that they "shake for it." They rolled out a pair of dice

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—The United States Lawn Tennis Association has acted quite properly in putting a stop to "barnstorming" by amateur players and the rule providing that any expense money must be paid through the club or sectional officer and not direct to players, is in strict accord with the amateur rule and should have been enforced long ago.

But the question of the ban upon writing by players is another matter. The spirit of the rule is correct, but it is like all legislation that undertakes to accomplish in blanket form a result that may be quite desirable. There is no reason whatever why a man whose profession is writing should be prevented from taking up the game of tennis and becoming a successful amateur player.

There is, of course, legitimate objection to a man who cannot write selling the reputation he may have acquired as a tennis player or a golf player—and letting somebody else write under his name.

But for the man who is by profession a writer, writing about a game in which he happens to be proficient, merely proves him a professional writer, not a professional athlete.

Take the most shining example among playing folk writers—Bernard Darwin. He is no more a professional golfer than Bob Gardner. But neither is a professional writer. The sooner we begin to call things by their real names, the better off we shall be in our sport legislation.

White Sox Have 3 Veteran Stars Who Possess Managerial Ability

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—While the appointment of Frank Chance as manager of the White Sox was well received, there is no denying the fact that three veteran stars on the club possess managerial ability—Eddie Collins, Ray Schalk and Harry Hooper.

That is why the selection of Chance was a surprise in some quarters. Kid Gleason frankly admits that Eddie Collins carried many of the managerial burdens for him when he was leading the Sox. Collins as captain directed the play of the club in the field, Gleason confining his activities to handling the pitching situation. As to the pitchers, Gleason was guided to a large extent by the judgment of Schalk.

Harry Hooper admits that one of the big disappointments of his career was his failure to be selected as the successor of Bill Carrigan, when he quit the managerial post at Boston.

Collins, Schalk and Hooper are regarded as three of the brainiest players in the American League and all have managerial possibilities if they ever care to take a whirl at the job.

the greater part of the daisy orchard. Likely looking for a manager, what the White Sox want is a man who can Prexy Bramham toots the starting horn.

Charlotte Observer states that negotiations to get Dempsey there the day following his appearance here are under way. After all the fuss and box fighters have stirred up around Charlotte it must have taken considerable courage to have even whispered such thing and to have gone so far with it as to state that it is very probable that Dempsey will be seen there is worthy of applause. Still there are probably several thousand Charlotte people who would go to see the head that wears the heavyweight title crown.

With the announcement by Moody that the Gardner-Smiths will play match is off for the very good reason that the Hon. Mr. Gardner will be unable to reach here Friday night and will have to wait until the following day. The Gardner-Smiths will be seen there Saturday night instead of every body playing at one time? It is a dull Saturday night that doesn't see at least two or three Danville quints fighting away on different floors about the city.

Jack Dempsey saw Young Stribling, Macon, Ga., school boy, in action in Florida and commented favorably on the southerner's style. "A little green yet," remarked the champion. "But he seems to have the stuff and in time may come to the top."

Greensboro fandom is in the seventh heaven of delight all because of the fact that Charlie Carroll has pulled a deal that brought "Red" Irlby, last year beloved of High Point bleachers, from the Scranton Pennsylvania club to Patriotville. And well may Patriot supporters wax joyful for "Red" is one of the best outfielders who ever chased a fly ball in the Piedmont and he steps up and gets his hits cleanly and constantly.

"Silent" Bill Pierre continues signing ball players. If he keeps up firing away signed contracts at the pace he is going now he will be the owner of the season the Bulls will have half the baseball talent in the south reporting to them. The Durham baseball factory will resemble a bee hive more than a ball club if business keeps on flourishing around the Bull pen.

With the signing of Irlby the 1924 Patriot outfit is beginning to shape up something like they are expected to look like the summer. Tap Daxton, who came to Greensboro in the trade that took Bill Pierre to Durham, will be seen behind the bat and can fill in on the outfield. Mike Fuhrer, secured from Winston, will decorate the short field. It is understood that this issue will be hanging around the key-stone position. Manager Carroll will sit at the hot corner and Irlby and probably Faber O'Hara will look after

QUITS GAME FOR GOSPEL

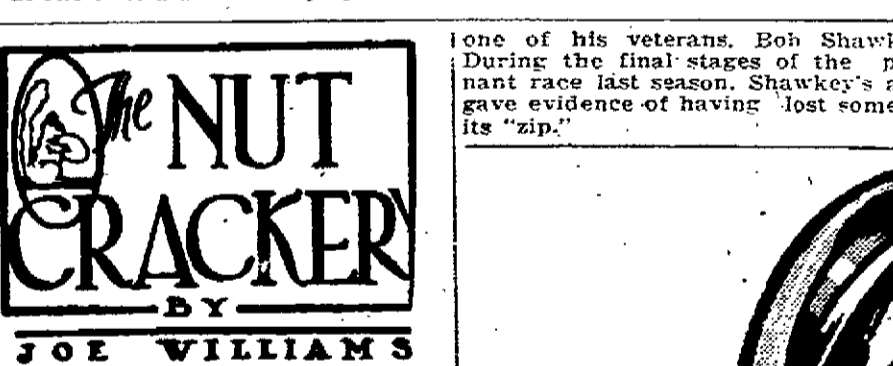

EDDIE FOSTER, WITH SUNDAY IN BACKGROUND.

Some six or seven years ago Eddie Foster, then the star third baseman of the Washington Americans, attended a Billy Sunday revival in the national capital. Foster, always one of the game's finest characters, "hit the sawdust trail" and became a convert.

A few weeks later the noted infielder took charge of a Bible class in Washington. His conversion was complete, sincere and profound. Foster developed many friends among the clergy and became a well-versed theologian.

It is no surprise, therefore, to learn that he has quit baseball for good and will spend the rest of his days propounding the gospel, much after the manner of the man who converted him, Billy Sunday who was at one time a noted ball player.

Despite all the natural influences involved, horseshoe pitching is one sport we can't get a kick out of.

YANKS WILL NOT GIVE WARD, SECOND SACKER IN TRADE FOR COLLINS

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Eddie Collins, who has cavorted around the keystone sack with high percentages for the Chicago White Sox for years, will not need to move to New York. In so far as the New York Yankees are considering. The Yankees have been negotiating to acquire the services of Collins, but last night, Ed Barrow, business manager of the world champions, received a message from Harry Grabiner, secretary of the Sox, informing him that if Aaron Ward, the Yankee second baseman, were included, the Sox might trade, otherwise not.

Mr. Barrow then packed his hand bag and left for Boston with Colonel Jacob Ruppert, the Yankee owner, to attend the annual American League schedule meeting today. Before he boarded the train he paused to say, "Ward will not be traded under any circumstances and if Frank Chance, at Boston, insists that he must have Ward, the negotiations will die right there."

"However, Chance may change his mind and select one of the players we mentioned last week when we said we would trade any Yankee excepting Ruth, Ward, Dugan and Jones. I notice that a lot of persons disbelieved that statement, but in so far as a deal for Collins goes, it stands."

"Furthermore, if the Sox want one of our pitchers in the deal they will have to give us a pitcher. Last winter we declined to take Charley Robertson in such a deal and held out for Ted Blankenship. Now we are willing to take Robertson. Chance has a wide range of material to pick from and we may do business but if he insists on ward, Collins will stay in Chicago."

FIRPO COMING BACK U. S. ABOUT APRIL 2

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—Luis Firpo is planning a re-entry into this country April 2 or 3 for his 1923 pugilistic campaign, during which he hopes to "lick Wills and Dempsey." Captain Thomas W. Sheridan, skipper of the American Legion, which arrived today from Buenos Aires, said that was what the boxer told him. "When Firpo came down to the ship at Buenos Aires, he had about 5,000 fans trailing him," said Captain Sheridan. "We had to keep him in side as the stevedores stopped work when he walked out on deck. I fed him a plank steak, American style, and he told that is what he intends to train on here. He ate only about three pounds."

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—In justice to Fred Dawson's professional reputation, many of his friends feel that his resignation as coach at the University of Nebraska should be placed in the proper light. A certain delicacy of feeling on the part of the authorities at Lincoln seems to have given the affair an element of mystery which has not been warranted by the facts. All the truth is that Dawson's departure from Nebraska was due to his failing health. After the last game of the season he practically collapsed and although he is away on leave of absence it seems certain that Dawson's health, his very life, depends upon his remaining in the far west and taking care of himself.

Dawson's record at Nebraska in coaching football and serving as dean of men has been splendid in every respect and his departure is regarded at Nebraska as a calamity.

Fleeting Yost celebrates his promotion to a full professorship by demonstrating that he is a man of no small ideas. He wants a natatorium, not with one pool, but with four, each pool to be devoted to special use. Then he wants a large skating rink and a football stadium, of course, much larger than the present one. Fred Yost sets forth, as urgent needs. There are other lesser needs, many of them, he says.

Here is Knute Rockne's latest goof story. The team was in the dressing room preparing to meet a strong opponent. The day was rainy, the gridiron a mass of mud. So Rockne had a large bag of resin scattered upon the floor and told the players to smear it all over their hands and legs and arms.

Among the players was one whom we will call Murphy, a third string man, who had not yet come near winning his letter. While the players were resining themselves one of the regulars saw Murphy seated in the midst of the piled-up resin.

"Hey there," cried the regular, "what are you putting that resin on the seat of your pants for?" "Why," said Murphy, looking up with a solemn expression, "to keep myself from slipping off the bench."

He is Dr. Harry Marsh Warren who years ago gave up being a minister in order that he might found and carry on the Save-A-Life League.

We went to him and told him—Heaven forgive us for the lie—that our lover had deserted us, that we weren't happy in our home life and that we'd just taken a large bottle of chloroform up to our room and put it on the window sill.

And in ten minutes Dr. Warren had convinced us that life was sweet, that we were young, lovely and talented and that if we were only good and patient there'd be another lover waiting just around the corner.

4500 Saved in a Year!
Years ago Dr. Warren had the pastorate of the Central Park Baptist Church but resigned it to take up the work of his Save-A-Life League.

During the past year this organization supplied food to 1338 persons, clothing to 219, medical aid to 151 and in 4581 instances has turned the thoughts of folks from suicide to life.

And so, even though we felt a little guilty as we sat down last before him, still we couldn't help feeling that here was a man who had a message for us.
"You mustn't take your life," he said. "Why, I have known girls to commit suicide when the very thing they despaired of was on its way to them. If they had only waited 12 hours—"

"There are some persons," he went on, "who laugh at those who have been disappointed in love."

"I never laugh, for I know there is nothing crueler than to put your trust in a loved one and have that trust betrayed."

"But suppose a man has the elements of fickleness in him. The girl who finds it out before she marries him should be glad, not grieved about it. Suppose she married him and then was deserted?"

"We admitted there was considerable comfort in that."

"And now," said the doctor, turning to our own personal case, "you have been disappointed in love."

NEW YORK STOCKS.

(By the Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Stock prices resumed their upward movement at the opening of today's market with the oils assuming the leadership.
U. S. Steel pfd. advanced a point. Davison Chemical was heavy, dropping two points.
Oils continued to set the pace. Houston advanced two points and Marland, Phillips and Mexican Sea-board rising a point or more. Ralls, Motors and Steels also gave good exhibitions of the group strength. Crucible, Chesapeake and Ohio, Union Pacific, Mack Truck and U. S. Cast Iron Pipe moving up a point or so.

DANVILLE DAIRY PRODUCTS CO.
HEADS THE LIST WITH SUPPLIES OF PUREST MILK FURNISHED

A recent survey of the report of the Health Department in connection with laboratory tests in the examination of specimens of milk submitted by the different distributors reveals quite a few interesting facts. The J. F. Mischke, city bacteriologist makes a monthly examination of milk which determines three important facts with regard to the milk as follows: The butter fat content, the total solids content and that what is known as the plate count or the number of germs present.

The January report shows that the products handled by this company are close to the top in the city of these, the butter fat content, while the total solids content is among the best recorded, and the record of the company is the lowest by far in the matter of germs present, with a count of 3,000 which is 2,333 counts below the closest competitor.

The report of the city bacteriologist also indicates that this did not just happen in the month of January alone, previous reports by this company have been far superior in purity to that of any other distributor just as it was in the month of January.

A comparison of the milk handled by this company with the recognized standard for acceptable milk is also interesting and shows well in advance of the average. The standard requires that the milk contain a butter fat of 3.25 per cent. while the milk handled by this company in January showed a content in butter fats of 4.8 per cent. The standard for the total solids content is 11.75 per cent. The total solids content of the milk examined in the January report showed 14.57 per cent. The company's plate count was 3,000, which is a great deal better than the standard.

The outstanding advantage of the milk offered for sale by this company over most other milk sold here is accounted for by the process of pasteurization. All of the milk distributed is thoroughly and effectively pasteurized, and the result of this process is very favorably indicated in the comparative table.

A new addition has been recently added to the plant of this company on Loyal street, in which is housed one of the most modern and up-to-date bottle washing machines on the market. The machine is manufactured by the John W. Ladd Company of Detroit, Michigan, and turns out clean, empty bottles at the rate of forty per minute. In the washing process the bottle passes through three stages: first it passes through a solution of Caustic Soda and water; it is then thoroughly washed in hot water, and is also rinsed in hot water. When the bottle comes out of this bath it is remarkably clean, in fact they will average 99 per cent. sterile. This should prove a splendid selling argument, especially to those who are sticklers for cleanliness and purity.

The record of the examination of milk made by Mr. Mischke for the month of January for all dairy concerns of the city follows:

NEW YORK COTTON.

(By the Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Yesterday's sharp advances were followed by considerable realizing at the opening of the cotton market today. The cables were lower than due and after opening barely steady at declines of 6 to 27 points, active old crop months sold 22 to 28 points net lower with May declining to 34.55. There was trade buying around this figure, supposedly up to 10 to 12 points from the lowest during the early trading.

Killed In Fight With the Police

(Associated Press Local Wire)

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 5.—Robert E. Wood, a former postmaster here, was shot and instantly killed last night in a fight with a police who sought to search his automobile for contraband liquor. Wood, who the police say was crazed with excessive use of moonshine, resisted the officers. He opened fire on them and Patrolman Ben Comer was shot in the chest. The force of the bullet was broken when it passed through the windshield and the policeman escaped with the floor wound. Other policemen ran to the spot and Wood again opened fire. It was returned and he was killed. Eight bullets were found in his body.

LOWDEN IS CHOSEN

(Associated Press Local Wire)

LYNCHBURG, Va., Feb. 5.—Virgil E. Lowden, of Bluefield, W. Va., has been chosen editor-in-chief in the 1925 argument, the student annual publication at Lynchburg College. Chester S. Ramsey, of Hagerstown, Md., is the business manager.

The REFEREE

BY ALBERT APPLE.

SECOND-HAND
A trifle more than three million second-hand autos were sold during 1923, according to the National Automobile Dealers' Association. Their sales cover the majority of used-car transactions.

The association reports that the average selling price of a used car in 1923 was $308. The interesting claim also is made that the dealers paid an average of $222 for these used cars.

Of a loss of $14 a car. This loss is one of the costs of salesmanship, in transactions where old cars are "traded in on" new ones.

"GAS"
How much have you been paying for gasoline? In the leading cities over the country, the price recently has been averaging a trifle under 15 cents a gallon. In some towns more, in others less.

In 1921, the average price of gasoline in the same cities was 29 cents a gallon. That was the highest ever reached.

A drop of nearly 50 per cent. certainly would be welcomed in other commodities. Over-production ultimately is the greatest price brake.

VICTIMS
An English socialite says he discovered that professional men are more apt to be enslaved by John Barleycorn than are men of so-called inferior ability.

Any old-time bartender could have told him this. Boozes after his kind, in the old days, it destroyed a dozen intellects for every physical body it wrecked. One reason we have prohibition.

DOES TEAPOT DOME WORRY?

"NAY," SAY ITS CITIZENS

By NEA Service.

TEAPOT DOME, Wyo. (Mammoth Camp), Feb. 5.—Quite the dullest, dullest spot in these United States is Teapot Dome.

It may stir a tempest in Washington, but in Wyoming it gets but cold, penetrating winds down the waste lands. Its desolation is second only to its isolation. Nothing ever happens but work and oil. Pumps and engines furnish its only audible sounds.

Political reputations and organizations may shiver over this, but the men who live here—that is most of them—would not weep a tear if the lease were to be canceled at any moment. There is no reason to do so.

Mammoth Camp, metropolis of the Teapot, built and they yearn for a movie and a city.

Groups of low, squat buildings scatter over its 9000-acre plot of loneliness. Then a great tank farm, big derricks, widely scattered in the distance, stand in a barren row.

Mammoth boasts about 100 residents. Scattered about the field are probably 200 more in various camps. Just now the population is falling.

HERO
What makes a man a hero? In popular imagination, a hero is a man who makes a sensational record or takes a daring chance. There are exceptions, and one of these is Edmund B. Branch of Lawrence, Mass. For 64 years he has served as an employee of his local gas company. This doesn't get him into the Olympic games. But somehow he strikes us as a heroic figure. His is a life of service.

The plunger doesn't get the applause. But he carries nine-tenths of the burden of life. This is real heroism, though not spectacular.

NEW
The railroads in 1923 placed in service about 198,000 new freight cars and over 4,000 new locomotives. This was more than in any year since before the war.

It is important news because shortage of railroad equipment often creates shortage of commodities and helps the speculators on prices up.

TIPS
A rich American banker was traveling in the Orient. He tells a Wall Street newspaper that he thought he had tipped everybody at one place in India, but the strangers showed up when he left the hotel. They said, "Bah! We are the undertakers and had you died we would have buried you."

This opens up enormous possibilities for our checkers, waiters and so on. The tipping system is undemocratic and foolish. It is tolerated because so many people believe in trying to get something for nothing.

off. Coming events had cast their shadow over the belt and there was a "lay-off." Ditches for water lines were left uncompleted.

"We're a 'Dome'!" thinks about the investigation was probably best reflected by a roustabout, questioned by the correspondent. Most residents are counterparts of this grizzled man who stood watching an airplane, carrying a movie camera.

The roustabout snuffed. "Political!" he snapped, admitting his partisanship. "We don't hear the end of this till after the presidential campaign, even if the lease is canceled. We're sure getting a lot of attention these days. I'm not afraid of my job though. Where're they hollerin' about? Ain't enough oil taken out of here to make anyone rich."

Such is the viewpoint. As for the field itself, drilling is now confined to a few test wells, though some are engaged on producing wells and on the pumps. While right next door is the great Salt Creek belt, with drilling and the humming of industry.

Death Mask of Wilson Is Made

(Associated Press Local Wire)

BALTIMORE, Feb. 5.—A death mask of Woodrow Wilson was made yesterday by Dr. Vladimir Fortunato, anatomical model expert of Johns Hopkins hospital. Since his escape from Russia three years ago, Dr. Fortunato has been engaged at the urological institute in making plaster casts which preserve unusual pathological and surgical conditions.

Dr. Hugh Young, director of the Brady Urological Institute, telephoned Admiral Grayson and suggested his Dr. Fortunato's skill in plastic art be utilized in preserving the features of Mr. Wilson. Admiral Grayson immediately conferred with Mrs. Wilson who agreed to entrust this work to the Hopkins man.

Before the Russian revolution, Dr. Fortunato was a practicing physician in Moscow. He also was connected with University of Moscow, where he developed the application of plastic art to medicine and surgery. He is 33 years old.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—I can see no change in general market conditions. A reaction now and then is about the only adversity I look for.

REAR ADMIRAL THOS. SELFIDGE IS DEAD

(By the Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Rear Admiral Thomas Oliver Selfridge, retired, is dead at his home here today of heart disease. He would have passed his 88th birthday Wednesday.

Admiral Selfridge and his father, who bore the same name and attained the same rank, served the navy for 105 years, the elder enlisting in 1818. The younger achieved fame in the Civil War. He was second in command of the Cumberland when it was sunk by the Merrimack, served under Porter on the Mississippi river, later commanded the naval battery at the siege of Vicksburg, and also commanded the gunboat Ogea, winning the unique distinction of commanding sailors in a battle against Confederate cavalry.

Yesterdays's answer: CHECKERS

CHESSES

The two games were "checkers" and "chess," the names are formed by fitting in the stars with the proper letters.

The drawing shows a large triangle which contains sixteen smaller ones. Each little triangle contains a letter. Start at any triangle, and pass to another triangle which touches it. If just the points of the triangle touch, it is all right. For example: from triangle "X" you can pass to either "T" or "L". Follow from triangle to triangle, and if you choose the correct course, the letters, as you arrange them, will spell two appropriate words.
